

Rites Sunday For Mrs. Mabel Dayton

Mrs. Mabel Dayton, 88, a resident of this community for many years, died last Thursday enroute to Community hospital from a Grinnell nursing home. She had been in failing health for several years.

Funeral services were conducted Sunday afternoon at two o'clock at Bramer Funeral Home in charge of Rev. C. W. Woollard, pastor of Grace Methodist church. Organist was Leo Shuler.

Interment was in I.O.O.F. cemetery. Grandsons serving as pallbearers were Eldon Audas of Newton, Marvin Dayton and Wayne Dayton of Grinnell, Larry Dayton of Moravia and Loren Roudabush and Roger Roudabush of Brooklyn. In charge of flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Don Ent and Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Calderwood.

Mabel Revina Dayton, daughter of Jacob and Einma Kornes, was born at Hartwick Sept. 20, 1877, and died Sept. 15, 1966.

She was married Dec. 15, 1896, to Clark L. Dayton in the home of her parents in Brooklyn. The couple farmed and lived in the Brooklyn community all of their married life. Following the death of her husband, Mrs. Dayton lived with her children with the exception of the last few years when she lived in a Grinnell nursing home.

She was a member of Grace Methodist church and had been active in church work as long as her health permitted.

She is survived by three children: Freeman E. Dayton of Deep River, Ray K. Dayton of Malcom and Mrs. John E. (Ruth) Roudabush of Brooklyn. She also leaves 17 grandchildren; 49 great-grandchildren and three sisters, Harriett Kornes of Grinnell, Mrs. Jean Stickles of Des Moines and Mrs. Florence Manny of Toledo, Ohio.

Preceding her in death were her husband; parents; a daughter, Mrs. Irene Fricke; and two sisters, Mrs. Olive Porter and Mrs. Lizzie McIlrath.
