

Bryce E. De Jong

Bryce E. De Jong, 44, of Sully died Sunday, Oct. 20, en route to Grinnell Regional Medical Center.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday at St. Andrew's Lutheran Church, with the Rev. Robert E. Waters officiating. Casket bearers were Steve Blom, Jon Brand, Roger Conn, Wyatt Earp, Rick Shutts, Craig Sparks and Steve Vos. Honorary bearers were Daryl Menninga, Darrell Nielsen, Steve Nielsen, Terry Nielsen, Mike Tuinstra and Mike Icenbice.

Burial was in St. Andrew's Lutheran Cemetery, Sully, with the Van Dyk-Duven Funeral Home in charge of arrangements.

He was the son of Willard Glen and Henrietta Nielsen De Jong and was born Oct. 31, 1951, in Oskaloosa. He was a 1972 graduate of Lynnville-Sully High School. He worked for Mid-American Dairy in Sully, then for Vermeer Manufacturing Co. in Pella. He later joined his father in the family business of hauling milk and gasoline. Following his father's death in 1976, Mr. De Jong worked at various places until becoming self-employed and running the Trophy Shop.

He was a member of St. Andrew's Lutheran Church.

He is survived by his mother and one brother, Barry. He was preceded in death by his father.

Memorial contributions may be made to the Sully Ambulance Service or to Progress Industries in Newton.

H-R October 28, 1996