Gladys Dicke rites in Neb.

(Dilbert A.)

Gladys Ann Page Dicke died at the Hitchcock County Hospital in Stratton, Neb. She was the mother of Gordon Dicke, formerly of Grinnell.

Services for Gladys Dicke were held at the Community United Methodist Church in Stratton on March 12 at 2 p.m., with the Rev. James Mote officiating. Organist Marie Kleinschmidt accompanied Carl Philo in "Amazing Grace" and "In the Garden." Pall bearers were Kenneth Stenehjem, Ted Pierce, Stanley Vrbas, Fred Lammel, Gene Kleinschmidt and Roy League. Interment was in the Rose Hill Cemetery in Stratton.

Gladys Ann Page was born on March 5, 1904 to Wilmert Bailey Page and Eliza Ellen Webster Page. On Dec. 30, 1927, she was married to Albert Arnold Dicke in Crete, Neb. The couple had three sons.

They farmed for many years near Wauneta, Max and Stratton. They moved into Stratton early in 1948, where they lived until her husband's death in 1973.

Gladys Dicke was preceded in death by her husband and her parents. She is survived by three sons: Gordon Lee of Kansas City, Mo., Kenneth Gene of Lincoln, Neb., and Dean Wilmert of Decatur, Ill.; eight grandchildren; five brothers and other relatives and friends.
