

Carrol L. Dickerson

Carrol L. Dickerson, 93, Des Moines, died Saturday, Nov. 4, at Iowa Methodist Medical Center following a stroke.

Services were held Tuesday afternoon at St. Paul's Episcopal Church, Des Moines.

The body was cremated.

The son of Bert and Mary V. Dickerson, he was born Nov. 17, 1896, in Grinnell.

He graduated from Grinnell College with the class of 1916 and served in the United States Navy in World War I at Navy Pier in Chicago, Ill.

In 1925 he was married to Selma Preston in Grinnell.

He entered the automotive business with his father on Fifth Avenue in Grinnell, later moving to Des Moines where he operated his own automobile agency. Following his retirement from his own business, he became manager of Betts Cadillac in Des Moines.

Survivors include his wife Selma, Des Moines; one son James Preston Dickerson, Birmingham, Mich.; three grandchildren and two great grandchildren.

- R November 9, 1989