

Wm. Dietrich Is 4-10-1928 Called By Death

Wm. Dietrich, well-known farmer of Lincoln township, died at 11:40 on Saturday night at the hospital in Williamsburg, following an operation. He had gone to the hospital the day before and was operated on for an abscess in his side Friday. The operation revealed a condition of blood poisoning which medical skill could not check.

Mr. Dietrich was the eldest son of Ferdinand and Caroline Dietrich and was born June 2, 1887, on the home farm in Lincoln township. Here he grew to manhood, was educated and engaged in farming. On Dec. 11, 1907, he was united in marriage to Mary Swartfeger, and to this union were born five daughters and one son. He is survived by his widow, six children, his father, four brothers and three sisters.

Mr. Dietrich was a highly-respected citizen, a good farmer, a devout Christian and an excellent neighbor.

Funeral services were held Tuesday, April 3, at 1:30 p. m. from Zion Reformed church, conducted by Rev. S. Elliker. Interment was in Zion cemetery.—Victor Record.
