

Harold Dimit rites Saturday

April 10, 1975

Harold E. Dimit, 67, of Pomona, Calif., formerly of Grinnell, died March 23 in Pomona after a long illness.

Graveside services will be held at 11 a.m. Saturday at the South Friends Cemetery, New Sharon, with the Rev. John W. McCallum, pastor of the Grinnell United Methodist Church, officiating. Friends may call the Smith Funeral Home for additional information.

The son of John Elvin and Blanche Robertson Dimit, he was born in Rogo, Saskatchewan, Canada on Nov. 15, 1907. The family later moved to the New Sharon area, and he attended the Taintor and New Sharon schools. Mr. Dimit had lived near Grinnell for more than 50 years and was employed at the John Deere store, the Ford garage and at the county shop as a mechanic. He had lived in California since 1964.

Survivors include his three sons, Bill and Robert Dimit of Grinnell and James Dimit of Kirksville, Mo.; five grandchildren: one brother, Leonard Dimit of Hemet, Calif.; and two sisters, Mrs. Dale (Ruby) Shaw of New Sharon and Mrs. Ted (Pauline) Fish, also of New Sharon.
