

Victor Rites For Earl Dolmage, 57

Funeral services for Earl R. Dolmage of Victor, 57, were held Saturday afternoon at two o'clock at the McAninch chapel in Victor with the Rev. Robert Bowers officiating. Mrs. G.W. Rieke was organist.

Burial was in the I.O.O.F.

cemetery at Victor. Pallbearers were John Wagner, Rudy Meyer, Wilmer Hudnut, August De Meulenaere, Joe Safken and George Meyer. In charge of flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Calderwood and Mr. and Mrs. Milo Ranfeld.

Earl R. Dolmage, son of Frank and Mabel Price Dolmage, was born April 9, 1906, south of Victor. The family later moved to Carnforth where he attended rural school. He graduated from Victor High school in 1924. He and his brother, Max, had farmed together for several years.

Mr. Dolmage suffered a stroke in October, 1961. He was hospitalized in Marengo and Iowa City and returned to his home on the farm in June, 1962. He was taken to the Marengo Memorial hospital March 1 where he died ten days later, March 11.

He is survived by one brother and two sisters: Max Dolmage of Victor, Eunice Dolmage of Davenport, and Mrs. Forrest (Hazel) Breniman of Brooklyn.

He was preceded in death by his parents and a brother, Wayne.
