

R. W. Doonan Rites Held Last Friday

The final rites for a prominent Montezuman, Robert W. Doonan, were held last Friday at the Montezuma Methodist Church with the Rev. Frank Jacobs conducting the services. Lance Fahlenkamp sang "The Lord's Prayer" at the service accompanied by Miss Alice Underwood, organist.

Burial was in Golden Rod Cemetery, Deep River, with Harold Morgan, Kenneth Gauley, Cecil Cranston, Lewis McKee, Larry Doonan and William Pitka serving as casketbearers.

Robert, son of William and Eliza Doonan, was born on a farm southeast of Montezuma, March 16, 1900, and passed away at his home in Montezuma, May 19, 1965. He was 65.

He attended rural school and graduated from Barnes City High School in 1920.

On December 24, 1921, he married Nellie Cranston. They made their home in the Barnes City community where he engaged in farming and later went into the oil business in both Barnes City and Montezuma.

He spent several years in Alaska where he worked on the Alaskan Highway. For the past 17 years he has been active in the Insurance and Real Estate business.

Because of failing health, they moved from their farm home near Deep River to Montezuma in September, 1964.

Mr. Doonan was a member of the Montezuma Methodist Church and of Lafayette Lodge #52, A.F. and A.M.

He is survived by his

and their son, Dean; three granddaughters, Marcia, Virginia and Debra; one brother, Henry Doonan, of Barnes City; two sisters, Miss Jane Doonan, of Barnes City, and Mrs. Vada Gauley, of Montezuma.
