

Funeral of Dan Doud Held Wednesday

Jan 30 1935

Funeral services for the late Dan Doud were held Wednesday morning from the Catholic church by Rev. Father M. J. Hannon and interment was made in Hazlewood cemetery. A large company of friends attended the solemn ceremonial of the church. Pall bearers, all nephews of Mr. Doud, were Will Doud, Dan Doud, Peter Doud, Mahlon Doud, Clarence Doud and Thomas McIlrath.

Those attending from a distance were Mrs. John Beeler of Davenport, J. C. McIlrath, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McIlrath and Thomas McIlrath of Montezuma, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Doud of Newton, Mrs. John Lunn, Mrs. Frank Hesley, Jake Hesley and Tom McGinn of Searsboro.

Dan Doud was born in Mercer county, Illinois, Nov. 22, 1855, and passed away at St. Francis Hospital Saturday, Jan. 24th.

When a small boy he came with his parents to Grinnell, where he made his home continually until his death. After the death of his parents he and his sister, Mrs. Kate Chapman, have made their home together.

As a young man he established a reputation for honesty and reliability which his later life sustained. For a number of years he had been a faithful and trusted employee of the Grinnell Co-Operative Delivery Co.

His passing is regretted by many friends to whom he had been endeared by many years of close association.

He is survived by four sisters and one brother, as follows: Mrs. Kate Chapman, Miss Margaret Doud and Mrs. Grant Wilson of Grinnell, Mrs. J. C. McIlrath of Montezuma and Peter Doud of Grinnell.
