

Rites held for Mr. Douglas

Emmet D. Douglas, 82, of Rte. 2, Malcom, died Monday, March 24, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were at 1:30 p.m. Wednesday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Dennis Smith of the Madison Church of Christ officiating. Organist was Jan Read.

Pallbearers were George Baustian, Charles Goodrich, Peter Goodrich, Sonny Schneckloth, Ernest Swanson and Richard Swanson. Honorary bearers were Edgar Buchenau, Burdette Farley, Lotus Goodrich and Duncan McDonald.

Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery, Malcom.

The son of Joni O. and Grace Brewer Douglas, he was born on Jan. 3, 1904, at Willmathville, Mo. The family moved to Streator, Ill., where he attended school.

On Feb. 24, 1928, he was married to Gladys Kenyon in Grinnell. The couple farmed near Hartwick for three years moving to a farm near Malcom in 1931. Mr. Douglas was a member of the Poweshiek County Farm Bureau and attended the Madison Church of Christ.

He is survived by his wife, Gladys; three children, Richard of Skiatook, Okla., Charlotte Fleener of Malcom and Dean of Grinnell; 12 grandchildren; 19 great-grandchildren; and three brothers, Maurice and Glen, both of Grinnell, and Hershel of Scottsdale, Ariz.

Brooklyn Paper

March 26, 1986
Obituaries

EMMET D. DOUGLAS

Emmet D. Douglas, 82, of Malcom, died Monday, March 24, at Grinnell General Hospital.

He was born at Willmathville, Mo., on Jan. 3, 1904, the son of Joni and Grace (Brewer) Douglas.

He grew up in Missouri and later attended school at Streator, Ill. On Feb. 24, 1928, he was married to Gladys Kenyon, at Grinnell.

Following their marriage, they farmed near Hartwick for three years, then moved to a farm near Malcom, where they have farmed since.

He was a member of the Farm Bureau and attended the Madison Church of Christ.

Survivors include his wife, Gladys, of Malcom, two sons, Richard L. Douglas of Skiatook, Okla., Dean Douglas of Grinnell and one daughter, Charlotte J. Fleener of Malcom; twelve grandchildren, and 19 great-grandchildren; three brothers, Maurice and Glen Douglas, of Grinnell and Hershel Douglas of Scottsdale, Ariz.

Services will be held Wednesday, March 26, at the Smith Funeral Home at Grinnell, with the Rev. Dennis Smith of Madison Church officiating. Interment is at Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom.

A-B March 27, 1986