

FRED DUFFUS

Funeral services were held Tuesday, June 10, at the Smith Funeral Home, Grinnell, for Fred B. Duffus, 89, of Grinnell, who died suddenly of an apparent heart condition.

The Rev. Myron Harris, pastor of the Northside Friends church, officiated at the services.

Pallbearers were Keith L. Gregory, Robert Henderson, Gerald Phipps, Marshall Pierce, Ernest W. Renaud and S. W. Inman.

Burial was in Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom.

The son of William and Sarah Margaret Andes Duffus, Mr. Duffus was born Aug. 1, 1888, near Malcom.

On Jan. 12, 1916, he married Myrtle Ferneau at Montezuma. To this union were born four children, three of whom survive.

Mr. Duffus farmed for a number of years near Montezuma and Malcom until his wife's death in 1930. He continued to work on farms until 1937 when he came to Grinnell to make his home and was employed by Grinnell College in the food service department.

On Dec. 29, 1948, he married Helen Hornbeck in Grinnell, who survives at home. Survivors also include three children - Mrs. Alvin (Hazel) Foster of Brooklyn, Harold Duffus of Kellogg and Harry Duffus of Brooklyn; seven grandchildren; six great grandchildren; and two sisters - Mrs. Ida Barnes of Malcom and Mrs. Orrie (Mae) VanFossen of Marshalltown.

Mr. Duffus was preceded in death by his first wife and one son in infancy.

June 10, 1969

DUFFUS RITES HELD AT GRINNELL

Funeral services for Fred B. Duffus of Grinnell were held Tuesday afternoon at the Smith Funeral Home. The Rev. Myron Harris, pastor of the Northside Friends Church officiated. Mrs. Leonard Pearce was the organist.

Interment was at Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom. Pallbearers were Keith Gregory, Robert Henderson, Gerald Phipps, Marshall Pierce, Ernest Renaud and S. W. Inman.

Mr. Duffus, 80, died suddenly Saturday afternoon of an apparent heart condition.

The son of William and Sarah Margaret Andes Duffus, he was born Aug. 1, 1888 near Malcom. On Jan. 12, 1916, he was married to Myrtle Ferneau at Montezuma. To this union were born four children, three of whom survive:

Mrs. Alvin (Hazel) Foster of Brooklyn; Harold Duffus of Kellogg; and Harry Duffus of Brooklyn.

Mr. Duffus farmed for a number of years near Montezuma and Malcom until his wife's death in 1935. He continued to farm until 1937 when he moved to Grinnell and worked at Grinnell College.

On Dec. 29, 1948, he married Helen Hornbeck in Grinnell, who survives.

In addition to his wife and children, he is survived by seven grandchildren; six great-grandchildren; two sisters, Mrs. Ida Barnes of Malcom and Mrs. Orrie (Mae) VanFossen of Marshalltown.

Services Tuesday For Fred Duffus

Monday, June 9, 1969

Funeral services will be held at 2 p.m. Tuesday at the Smith Funeral Home for Fred B. Duffus, 89, of 1410 Third Ave., Grinnell, who died suddenly Saturday afternoon of an apparent heart condition.

The Rev. Myron Harris, pastor of the Northside Friends church, will officiate at the services. Organist will be Mrs. Leonard Pearce.

Pallbearers will be Keith L. Gregory, Robert Henderson, Gerald Phipps, Marshall Pierce, Ernest W. Renaud and S.W. Inman. Burial will be in Ivy Hill Cemetery at Malcom. Friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home. The son of William and Sarah Margaret Andes Duffus, Mr. Duffus was born Aug. 1, 1888, near Malcom.

On Jan. 12, 1916, he married Myrtle Ferneau at Montezuma. To this union were born four children, three of whom survive.

Mr. Duffus farmed for a number of years near Montezuma and Malcom until his wife's death in 1930. He continued to work on farms until 1937 when he came to Grinnell to make his home and was employed by Grinnell College in the food service department.

On Dec. 29, 1948, he married Helen Hornbeck in Grinnell, who survives at home.

Survivors include his wife; three children - Mrs. Alvin (Hazel) Foster of Brooklyn, Harold Duffus of Kellogg and Harry Duffus of Brooklyn; seven grandchildren; six great grandchildren; and two sisters - Mrs. Ida Barnes of Malcom and Mrs. Orrie (Mae) VanFossen of Marshalltown. Mr. Duffus was preceded in death by his first wife and one son in infancy.