Eunice Dunn services held

(Russell)

KELLOGG (Special)--
Eunice Dunn, 71, a lifelong resident of Kellogg, died Monday, Oct. 23, at Skiff Hospital in Newton.

Funeral services were held Thursday at the Kellogg Christian Church, with the Rev. David Barnes and the Rev. Carl Klein officiating. Pallbearers were Stanley Ashby, Norman Fifer, Charles Fritz, Harold Haines, Leonard Starrett, and Robert Townsend. Honorary bearers were John Craven, Vernal Gregory, Merlyn Guessford, Raymond Lansing, Louis Lenz and Emerson Scoville. Music was provided by Hazel Breckenridge, Kathrine Schaumburg, and Thelma Hill. Burial was at Our Silent City Cemetery, Kellogg.

Friends gave memorials to the flower fund of the Kellogg Christian Church.

The daughter of Nelse and Lulu Bunker Paulson, she was born Sept. 26, 1907, at Kellogg. She was graduated from Kellogg High School and took one year of training at Grinnell. On Sept. 18, 1929, she was married to Russell Dunn at Kellogg.

Mrs. Dunn, a former school teacher, was a member of the Kellogg Christian Church, the Kellogg Garden Club, the Newton Eastern Star, and the Kellogg Eastern Star, which she served as past worthy matron.

Survivors include her husband; a son, Charles Paulson of Davenport; three grandchildren; a brother, Gerald Paulson of San Antonio, Tex.; and a sister, Mrs. John (Velma) Williams of Kellogg. She was preceded in death by her parents and a grandson.
