

DEEP RIVER (Iowa) RECORD

THURSDAY, SEPT. 22, 1966

Leo F. Dunton, 75
Was Brooklyn Native

Brooklyn, Set. 16, 1966

Leo E. Dunton, 75, died in a Grinnell hospital, Tuesday, after a lingering illness. Born in Brooklyn, he was graduated in 1909, from the Brooklyn High School and in 1913, from Iowa University.

He assisted his father for many years in the feed and coal business, and continued that business after his father's death. He made his home of late years with his brother's family, of Brooklyn.

He was a member of the Methodist Church and a great friend of the Brooklyn Library.

He is survived by one brother, Guy and sister-in-law, Blanche Dunton, by one niece and several great nephews.

Funeral services were held Friday at 2 p.m. at Bramers Funeral home, the Rev. C. W. Woollard officiating. Burial was in IOOF cemetery in Brooklyn.

OBITUARIES

Leo E. Dunton

Leo Eugene Dunton, son of Frank P. and Clara Baker Dunton, was born June 10, 1891, in Brooklyn and died Sept. 13, 1966, at Community hospital in Grinnell. He had lived all of his life in this community.

He attended Brooklyn public schools, graduating with the class of 1909, and attended the University of Iowa, Iowa City, where he graduated in 1913. For many years he had been associated in the coal and feed business in Brooklyn, first with his father and later managing the business himself.

Survivors include his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Guy Dunton, with whom he had made his home. He also leaves a niece, Mrs. Don (Mildred) Sowerwine of Grinnell, a great nephew, Robert John Sowerwine of New Orleans, La. and two great-great nephews, Robert and Jeffrey Sowerwine.

Funeral services were conducted Friday, Sept. 16, at 2:00 p.m. at Bramer Funeral Home in charge of Rev. C. W. Woollard, pastor of Grace Methodist church. Leo Shuler was organist.

Burial was in I.O.O.F. cemetery with the following serving as pallbearers: Robert Sowerwine, Jess Meredith, Leffert McIlrath, L. H. Van Zee, Kenneth Gross and Walter Tinkle. Flower attendants were Mrs. Ed Burk, Mrs. L. H. Van Zee and Mrs. Leffert McIlrath.

18--Brooklyn (Ia.) Chronicle--