

Wilma Dyche

Wilma Main Dyche, 68, of Milan, Ill., formerly of Grinnell, died Jan. 5 at United Medical Center, Moline, Ill.

Funeral services were conducted Wednesday, Jan. 9, at the Larson Funeral Home in Milan, with the Rev. David Kyllonen of the West Side Assembly of God Church, Davenport, officiating. Burial was in Memorial Park Cemetery, Rock Island, Ill.

The daughter of William A. and Patience Osterhagen, she was born Dec. 6, 1922, in Baxter, Iowa. She attended Newton High School.

She was married to Harold A. Main March 9, 1942, in Bethany, Mo.

Mrs. Dyche retired from Dyche Brothers Glass Co. in Denver, Colo., where she worked in bookkeeping and payroll. Before moving to Denver, she was secretary to Eagles Food Warehouse in Milan.

After receiving a kidney transplant in Denver, she moved back to Milan to be near her children. She was a member of Memorial Heights United Methodist Church in Rock Island.

Surviving are a daughter, Patricia Carroll of Moline; a son, Harold E. Main, also of Moline; six grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; two sisters, Deloris Graham of rural Grinnell and Margaret Kent of Davenport; two brothers, William M. and Larry J. Osterhagen; and a special friend, Ted Carroll, with whom she lived.

She was preceded in death by her parents and her husband.

17, 1991
January
H-R