

Melvin L. Eddy Sr., 81

Melvin L. Eddy Sr., 81, of 419 E. Sheridan Ave., Des Moines, died of a heart and lung disease on Monday, June 12, 1995 at home.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. on Saturday, June 17, 1995, at Hamilton's Funeral Home in Des Moines. Rev. Warren James officiated the services. Jarold Greene was the soloist. Burial was at Mount Vernon Cemetery in Swaledale, Iowa.

Melvin was born on October 9, 1913 in Swaledale, and moved to Des Moines in 1953. He was the owner of Mel Eddy's Used Cars from 1962 until 1994 and was a member of Auburn Lodge #592. Melvin attended the Montezuma Regular Baptist Church in Montezuma.

Melvin is survived by his wife, Jo; a son, Lawrence of Daytona Beach, Fla.; a stepson, Dana Breese of Des Moines; two daughters, LaVonne Siever, Raleigh, N.C., and Melanee Yamen, Des Moines; two step-daughters, Dian Spake of Des Moines, and Monica Johnson, Tacoma, Wash.; and several grandchildren and great-grandchildren.

Memorials may be made to the American Cancer Society.

MR June 21, 1995