

Rites Monday For Lorinda Edgington

Mrs. Lorinda C. Edgington, wife of the late Calvin O. Edgington, died at Crestview Acres in Marion last Saturday following a long illness.

Mrs. Edgington was born August 3, 1886, in Poweshiek county, the daughter of Christopher and Marcia Ann Kensinger. In 1912 she was graduated from Grinnell college and in August of the same year was married to Dr. Calvin O. Edgington who was practicing osteopathic medicine in Toledo. In 1916 the couple moved to Laramie, Wyo. where Dr. Edgington died in 1927. Mrs. Edgington continued to make her home in Laramie until March of this year when she came to Iowa.

She was an active member of the Methodist Church, the Women's Club and D.A.R. She was first vice regent of the Wyoming state chapter of D.A.R. when illness made it necessary for her to resign the position.

She is survived by two brothers, Friend Kensinger of Brooklyn and Harry E. Kensinger of Cedar Rapids, and one sister, Lottie L. Volkmer of Washington D.C. Four brothers and three sisters preceded her in death.

Funeral services were conducted October 7 at 2:30 p.m. at Bramer Funeral Home with the Rev. C.W. Woollard of Grace Methodist church officiating. Glayne Doolittle was organist.

Burial was in the Brooklyn I. O. O. F. cemetery. Pallbearers were Merle Kensinger, Marvel Kensinger, Don Kensinger, Glayne Doolittle, Richard Brown and Roy Reed.
