

Mrs. Cecil Elliott rites held at Deep River

Funeral services for Mrs. Cecil (Jean) Elliott, a lifelong resident of Deep River, were conducted by the Rev. Leo Wilson at 2 p.m. Sunday, Feb. 28, in the Deep River Christian Church. Music at the rites was provided by soloist Mrs. Doren Dale accompanied by pianist Mrs. Evelyn Icenbice.

Casket bearers were Larry Wolf,

LaVerne Doty, Kenneth Keller, Mark Elliott, Larry Icenbice and Kenneth Wallace. Burial was in Golden Rod Cemetery at Deep River.

Mrs. Elliott died Friday, Feb. 25, after a long illness. She was 53.

The daughter of Nelson and Lenora Haag Keller, she was born at Deep River on June 2, 1918. She graduated from Deep River High School in 1935.

On Sept. 11, 1940, she married Cecil Elliott at Deep River.

She was a member of the Christian Church and served as a Deaconess and as a Sunday School teacher for many years. She was also active in the Women's Christian Fellowship and the Morrison-Schrader Post of the American Legion Auxiliary.

Survivors include her husband, Cecil; a son, David, and his wife, Phyllis, of Miles; two grandchildren, Lisa and Eric Elliott; three brothers, Wayne Keller of Adel, Newell Keller of Deep River, Jack Keller of Oskaloosa; and two sisters, Mrs. Vaughn Icenbice and Mrs. Ray Bruns, both of Deep River.

She was preceded in death by her parents.

(Cecil R)

1971