

Mrs. Mary Jane 8-8-1930 Elliott Passes

Mary Jane (Craig) Elliott was born September 7, 1845 at Allegheny, Pennsylvania and passed away at the home of her daughter, Mrs. J. C. Kaisand, Grinnell, Iowa, August 2, 1930, aged 84 years, 11 months, 5 days. As a small girl she pioneered to Iowa with her parents, settling near Kellogg, Iowa. She spent her life near Kellogg and in Rock Creek until twenty years ago. At that time she went to live with her son, Sam Elliott at Indianola, Ia. Due to ill health she came to live with her daughter in Grinnell but her heart has always been in the home of her son who had devoted his life to her happiness and comfort. She leaves to mourn her death, two brothers, Sam and Al Craig of Kansas; four children, Tom of Spokane, Washington, Sam of Indianola, Iowa, Frank of Walden, Colorado and Mrs. J. C. Kaisand of Grinnell. Two children, Celia and Maggie preceded her in death. She leaves also three grand children, Mrs. N. Hoover of Indianola, Mary and Francis Kaisand of Grinnell, seven great grand children and a host of friends. One of her great comforts was found in the company of her old friends, many of whom were in attendance at the memorial service. Mrs. Elliott was of the Baptist faith.

Funeral services were held at the home of her daughter, 707 Summer St. on Tuesday afternoon in charge of the Rev. George Blagg. Rev. Robert Cope and Mrs. Roscoe Dempster sang the hymns, "Face to Face" and "Ivory Palaces." Burial was made in Hazelwood.
