Charles Elscott Buried Friday In Lynnville

LYNNVILLE (Special): Funeral services were held Friday, July 28 for Charles Elscott, son of Henry and Jennie Van Workum Elscott, who was born in Mahaska county near Taintor on Jan. 24 and passed away in a Mahaska hospital on July 26, 1967.

Mr. Elscott was married to Madeline Sparks on June 12, 1929 and had lived in Lynnville or the surrounding area all of his life. He was employed by the Maytag Company for 20 years until his recent illness.

Elscott was one of a family of 10 children, and was preceded in death by his parents, three sisters — Mrs. Mary Kuiper, Mrs. Anna Monsma, and Mrs. Jeanette Wooge — and two brothers, John Elscott and Guy Elscott.

He is survived by his wife Madeline, three sisters — Mrs. John (Artie) Jansen, Sully, Mrs. Louis (Henrietta) Jansen, Pleasantville, and Mrs. Vern (Katherine) Stanley, Lynnville — and his twin brother, Harry Elscott of Lynnville.

Funeral services were held in the Lynnville Friend's church at 2 p.m. The Rev. Peter Schuler was in charge. A male quartette, composed of Jacob Brand, Lyle Brand, Dale Jansen, and Warren Stanley sang "How Great Thou Art" and "The Pearly White City" accompanied by Mrs. Ron Toppenberg.

Pallbearers were Delmar Jansen, Glen Elscott, Dwight Monsma, Carroll Elscott, Wayne Jansen, and Gaylord Elscott. Flower attendants were Mrs. Edward Renaud, Mrs. Ozro Dearing, and Mrs. Ray Ver-Steeg. Burial was in Woodland Cemetery.
