

Mrs. Dorothy
Emmert Dies
Near Kellogg

3-18-
1930
Mrs. Dorothy Emmert, living six and one half miles southeast of Kellogg, passed away Saturday, March 15th, at the age of 92 years. Funeral services were held from the home this afternoon at 2 o'clock with Rev. Mr. Howell, pastor of the Killduff Methodist Episcopal church, in charge. Interment was in the Kellogg cemetery.

In 1867, Mrs. Emmert, with her husband, located on the farm south of Kellogg on which she has resided continually until her death. She leaves to mourn her departure three sons and one daughter, George of Killduff, Phil of Newton, Andy of Grinnell, and Mrs. William Dennis of Long Beach, California, also twelve great grandchildren.