

THE REV. J. ARTHUR
EVELAND

The Register's Iowa News Service

BROOKLYN, IA. — Services for The Rev. J. Arthur Eveland, 63, of Brooklyn, pastor of Grace United Methodist Church in Brooklyn, will be at noon Saturday at Grace United Methodist Church.

The Rev. Mr. Eveland died Tuesday in a Grinnell hospital. He had been pastor here since 1970 and had previously served as pastor at Otterbein Methodist Church at Muscatine and St. Andrews Methodist Church in Des Moines.

He was Lt. Gov. of the Iowa-Nebraska Division of Kiwanis.

Survivors include his wife, three sons and three sisters.

Rev. Eveland services held

The Rev. J. Arthur Eveland, 63, pastor of Grace United Methodist Church in Brooklyn, was pronounced dead on arrival Tuesday, Nov. 26, at Grinnell General Hospital.

The Rev. Mr. Eveland had become ill during the afternoon, had summoned his wife to take him to the hospital, and apparently died enroute.

Funeral services for the Rev. Mr. Eveland were held at noon Saturday.

Survivors include his wife, Mary Ellen, and three sons, John, Paul and David.

The Rev. Mr. Eveland had been pastor of the Brooklyn church for four years. In October, he was installed as lieutenant governor of Division 10 of Kiwanis International.