

Cindy Eversdyk

Cindy D. Eversdyk, 34, of Abilene, Texas, formerly of Grinnell, died of Niemann-Pick disease Saturday, Feb. 2, at her home.

Graveside services were conducted Wednesday at the Westfield Cemetery south of Grinnell, with the Rev. Bill Ell, pastor of the West Liberty Church of Christ, officiating.

The daughter of Marion and Julia Eunice Allen Eversdyk, she was born Nov. 23, 1936, in Grinnell. She moved with her family to Texas and graduated from Abilene High School in 1975. She also attended Abilene Christian University. Following her education she was employed by the Abilene State School and later by Texas Instruments.

She was a member of the Hillcrest Church of Christ in Abilene and was a volunteer at the West Texas Rehab Center.

Surviving are her parents; her maternal grandmother, Veda Allen of Searsboro; three brothers, David of Angleton, Texas, Randall of Fairfax and Dennis of Abilene; and one sister, Julie Hicks of San Antonio, Texas. She was preceded in death by her maternal grandfather, Afton Allen, and her paternal grandparents, John and Leona Eversdyke.