LOIS M. FAIRALL

(Foster)

Lois M. Fairall, 90, of Ladora, died Dec. 19, 1986, at Marengo Hospital.

She was the daughter of Elmer and Hattie Betz Fiser and was born on June 18, 1896 near Ladora. She attended Ladora High School and was a graduate of the University of Iowa School of Nursing. She practiced nursing in Iowa and California.

On Nov. 9, 1923, she was married to Foster Fairall at San Jose, Calif. The couple made their home in California until 1950 when they moved to Ladora to make their home. She was a telephone operator for many years.

She was a member of the United Methodist Church in Ladora and the American Legion Auxiliary in Ladora. She was also very active in senior citizen activities.

There are no immediate survivors.

Services were Dec. 21 at the Methodist Church in Ladora with the Rev. Robert Barrick, pastor of the church, officiating. Burial was in the Ohio Cemetery with McAninch-Fremming Funeral Home in charge.
