

H-R October 30, 1978

M Faircloth rites held

KELLOGG (Special)— Gertrude Faircloth, 83, of Kellogg died Monday Oct. 16 at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were at 2 p.m. Thursday, Oct. 19, at the Johnson-Reese Chapel in Newton, with the Rev. Morris Hay officiating. Burial was at Our Silent City Cemetery,
Kellogg. Memorial contributions were made to retarded children.

Pallbearers were Russell
Faircloth, William Faircloth, John Faircloth, Mark Anderson, Daniel Crook and Merlyn Schuler.

The daughter of Jacob and Cora Irish Faircloth, she was born Nov. 13, 1894, on a farm north of Kellogg. She was educated in Jasper County schools.

Survivors include a sister, Mrs. Adolph (Byrdie) Ebert of Kellogg, and two brothers, Arthur S. Faircloth of Melbourne and Ralph E.
Faircloth of Marshalltown.