

4-6 Mrs. J. T. Faircloth. 1908

Sarah Hall was born in Jefferson county, Iowa, June 7, 1845. At the age of one year she moved with her parents to Poweshiek county, where she grew to womanhood and was united in marriage with John T. Faircloth, March 8, 1866. This union was blessed with one child, Nannie L., born Oct. 29, 1871, who departed this life February 4, 1874. Mrs. Faircloth lived the greater part of her married life in Grinnell and vicinity.

Twenty-nine years ago she was converted and immersed by Rev. Martin Cregson and became a member of the Baptist church. She had not at all times been a regular church attendant, but ever kept her faith in Christ. She was a faithful and devoted wife and sister, a kind and loving neighbor and was ever ready to lend her assistance to the sick and suffering.

On August 6 she was stricken with an incurable disease and since that time she has been a constant sufferer. She departed this life April 1, 1908. She bore her suffering patiently and ever expressed her faith in Christ, her Savior, and was prepared to go. She leaves to mourn her loss her husband, one brother, four sisters and other relatives and numerous friends.

At her bedside were gathered her husband, brother and three sisters. One sister who lives in Dakota, was unable to be present.

Mrs. Faircloth will be greatly missed in her home and neighborhood, where she has always been more considerate of the feelings and comforts of others than of herself. To the sorrowing husband and other relatives the Herald extends its deepest sympathy in the loss of so good a woman.

Funeral services were conducted Friday by the Rev. J. Arthur Hurley and interment made at Hazelwood.
