

LEVI

Lee Farley, 78, Services Held

April 17, 1970

A former Grinnell resident and the man who first opened the Grinnell Travel Center died Friday at a Rockford, Ill., nursing home after a lengthy illness.

Services for Levi (Lee) Farley, 78, of Durand, Ill., were held at the McCorkle Funeral Home in Durand Saturday and at the Richardson Funeral Home in Carlisle Sunday. Burial was at Carlisle.

Mr. Farley was a retired railroad agent and was born in Carlisle. He lived in Grinnell a number of years before moving to Illinois nine years ago.

He was a member of the Masonic Lodge and Eastern Star in Bonaparte, Iowa, and the United Methodist Church in Durand.

Mr. Farley is survived by his wife Edith his son Robert, three grandchildren and two brothers.