

TUESDAY, APRIL 24, 1917

DIED.

Warren Faulkner

A man of sterling worth passed away when Warren Faulkner died early on Sunday morning at his home at 333 South Park street. He had reached the age of 81 years and for a long time had been a resident of Grinnell.

The funeral services were held at 2:30 this afternoon at the home, conducted by Rev. J. M. Brown and members of the Masonic lodge, of which Mr. Faulkner was a member. Interment was at Hazelwood.