

(Edd)

---

Mrs. Belle Fay, 95,

Dies In Minnesota

H.R. 5-15-54
Mrs. Clara Belle Fay, 95, oldest member of the Newburg Congregational church, passed away last Saturday at the home of her daughter Adda (Mrs. Asa Howe) in Faribault, Minn.

Funeral services were held Tuesday and burial was in Northfield, Minn., where her husband, ~~Edd Fay~~, and daughter, Myrtle Albers, are buried.

Born in Henry county, Illinois, July 27, 1853, Mrs. Fay was united with the Newburg church in 1900. She is survived by a sister, Mrs. J. N. Hartzell of University park, formerly of Grinnell, and a brother, Clarence Sisco of Cedar Rapids.

On Nov. 4, 1953, Mrs. Fay was able to attend the 50th wedding anniversary observance of Mr. and Mrs. R. M. Burroughs (a niece) at Newburg. The Burroughs attended the funeral services.

Other nephews and nieces in this area are Mrs. Marie Hendrickson, Mrs. George Rasp, Mrs. Howard Weaver and Virgil Adams, all of Newburg, and Chester Newcomer of Grinnell.

---