

REX

Last Services For Ray Ferneau Are Held Today

2-8-1935

Simple funeral services for Rex Ferneau, son of Mrs. Bessie and the late Lee Ferneau, who died Tuesday at the Community hospital, were held at 2 p. m. today from the Methodist Episcopal church conducted by Rev. William Welsh. A number of young friends served as pallbearers.

The obituary which was read at the service is as follows:

Rex Deverne Ferneau, son of Mrs. Bessie and the late Lee Ferneau, was born March 6, 1921, and died at the Community hospital Feb. 5, 1935, being 13 years, 10 months, and 29 days old.

Before his fatal sickness he was preparing to take his eighth grade examinations. Rex was a very likeable little fellow, loving the out of doors, had always enjoyed good health, and was only a week sick prior to his death.

He was a member of the Methodist Sunday school, and loved to attend when it was possible.

Prior to his departure, he seemed to realize that the end was near, but death had no dread or fear for him, for he expressed the desire that he wanted to go.

On October 23, 1929, his father was killed in a runaway accident.

He leaves to mourn his departure his mother, three sisters and two brothers, Mrs. Court Brannon, Mrs. Ted Smith, Paul, Alice, and Clark Ferneau; his grandfather and grandmother, Mr. and Mrs. A. McDonough, also many relatives, and a host of friends.