Funeral services for Mrs. Harlan Ferneau were conducted at 2 p.m. Saturday at the Methodist church by the Rev. Frank Jacobs. Miss Alice Underwood was organist and accompanied Mrs. Dean Doonan as she sang "Beautiful Isle of Somewhere" and "Beyond the Sunset".

Interment was in the Masonic--IOOF cemetery under direction of the Steffy Funeral Home. Casket bearers were Harold Lofgreen, Alvin Foster, Milo Lezer, Harry Duffus, Richard Mitchell and Harold Duffus.

Tassie, youngest daughter of Elizabeth and Thomas Johnston, was born on a farm near Deep River, Sept. 9, 1896, and died at her home in Montezuma, Oct. 10, at 66 years of age.

When she was a small child, she moved with her family to Montezuma, where she attended the local school and graduated with the Class of 1916. She taught for several terms in the rural schools. In her youth she joined the Methodist church and was a faithful member as long as her health permitted.

On Oct. 25, 1923, she was united in marriage with Harlan Ferneau, and to this union, two sons were born.

Since 1941, she has been afflicted with poor health, after several operations at
