

Lola F. Fields

Funeral services were held Monday morning, Jan. 26, at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma for Lola F. Fields, 85, of Grinnell, and formerly of Montezuma, who died Friday, Jan. 23, 1998, at St. Francis Manor in Grinnell.

The Rev. John Epperson officiated. Kathleen Ramsey, organist, offered the selections "In the Garden," "Beyond the Sunset" and "Whispering Hope." Casket bearers were Larry Fields, Eugene Simpson, Andrew Weld, Todd Hospodarsky, James See and Scott Marchant. Interment was in the Jackson Township Cemetery at Montezuma.

Lola was born Dec. 21, 1912, near Estherville, the daughter of Earl and Elma Faye McLaughlin Clark. On Dec. 22, 1936, she was married to Eddie Fields at Kansas City, Kan., and he died Feb. 26, 1961. After her husband's death, Lola worked as a cook, first for the Montezuma schools, before moving to Grinnell, and then she worked in the kitchen of the Friendship Manor care center until her retirement.

Lola was baptized at the Minburn Church of Christ on Feb. 13, 1952. Besides her husband, she was preceded in death by two sisters, Darlene Graves and Helen Burns.

She is survived by two sons and their wives: Edwin and Eula Fields of Marshalltown and Donald and Sandee Fields of Cedar Rapids; two daughters and their husbands: Iona and John Weld of Fairfax and Juanita and Marion See of Malcom; eight grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and three sisters and a brother-in-law: Claretta Hovel of Manly, Esther Mae and George Coffin of Westside, and Iona Dee Reynolds of Sarasota, Fla.

Memorials may be made to St. Francis Manor, Grinnell.

Lola F. Fields, 85, of Grinnell and formerly of Montezuma, died Friday, January 23, 1998 at St. Francis Manor in Grinnell, Iowa.

Funeral services were Monday, January 26, 1998 at Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma. The Rev. John Epperson officiated.

Musical selections were "In The Garden," "Beyond The Sunset" and "Whispering Hope." Kathleen Ramsey was the organist.

Casket bearers were Larry Fields, Eugene Simpson, Andrew Weld, Todd Hospodarasky, James See and Scott Marchant.

Interment was in Jackson Township Cemetery in Montezuma. Following the graveside service, friends and relatives joined the family at the Presbyterian Church in Montezuma for lunch and fellowship.

Lola was born December 21, 1912 near Estherville, Iowa, the daughter of Earl and Elma Fay McLaughlin Clark. On December 22, 1936, she was united in marriage to Eddie Fields in Kansas City, Kan. Eddie died February 26, 1961.

After her husband's death, Lola worked as a cook, first for the Montezuma schools then in Grinnell in the kitchen at Friendship Manor care center until her retirement.

She was baptized at the Minburn, Iowa Church of Christ on February 13, 1952.

She was preceded in death by her parents, her husband and two sisters, Darlene Graves and Helen Burn.

Surviving her are two sons and their wives, Edwin and Eula Fields of Marshalltown and Donald and Sandee Fields of Cedar Rapids; two daughters and their husband, Iona and John Weld of Fairfax and Juanita and Marion See of Malcom, eight grandchildren, 14 great-grandchildren, three sisters, Claretta Hovel of Manly, Esther Mae and husband George Coffin of Westside, Iowa and Iona Dee Reynolds of Sarasota, Fla.

Memorials may be directed to St. Francis Manor in Grinnell.

Lola Fields

Lola F. Fields, 85, of Grinnell formerly of Montezuma, died Friday, Jan. 23, at St. Francis Manor

Funeral services were conducted at 11 a.m. Monday at the Watts Funeral Home in Montezuma, with the Rev. John Epperson officiating. Organist was Kathleen Ramsey and casket bearers were Larry Fields, Eugene Simpson, Andrew Weld, Todd Hospodarsky, James See and Scott Marchant.

Burial was in Jackson Township Cemetery, Montezuma.

She was the daughter of Earl and Elma Faye McLaughlin Clark and was born Dec. 21, 1912, near Estherville. She was married to Eddie Fields in Kansas City, and he died in 1961.

Mrs. Fields then worked as a cook, first for the Montezuma schools, then at Friendship Manor Care Centre in Grinnell until her retirement.

She is survived by two sons, Edwin of Marshalltown and Donald of Cedar Rapids; two daughters, Iona Weld of Fairfax and Juanita See of Malcom; eight grandchildren; 14 great-grandchildren; and three sisters, Claretta Hovel of Manly, Esther Coffin of Westside and Iowa of Sarasota, Fla.

She was preceded in death by her parents and two sisters, Darlene Graves and Helen Burns.

Memorials may be made to St. Francis Manor.