

Wallace 'Wally' Franklin Fiser

Funeral services were Monday morning, Dec. 30, at Smith Funeral Home in Victor, for Wallace "Wally" Franklin Fiser, 78, of Ladora, who died Dec. 26, 1996, at his home.

The Rev. Cloyd Bishop, associate pastor of the New Covenant Parish, Ladora, officiated. Music was by Marilyn Rodgers, organist, and Lynn Rodgers, who sang "Amazing Grace" and "How Great Thou Art."

Pallbearers were Robert Fiser, Rodney Fiser, Deana Fiser, Jon Fiser, Nathan Fiser, Matt Fiser, Angela Fiser, Sonya Fiser, and Malinda Fiser. Honorary bearers were Gene Atkinson, Clayton Dietrich, Louis Knapp, William McCallister, Harold Tanner and Jerry Tanner. Interment was in the Brooklyn Cemetery, Brooklyn, Iowa.

The son of Floyd and Wilma Benton Fiser, Wally was born Aug. 19, 1918, in Poweshiek County, Iowa. He attended rural schools near his home and later attended Brooklyn High School.

He was married to Lucille Rodgers on Aug. 8, 1938, in Tama. The couple farmed in the Ladora area most of his life and he also worked for several years at Kinze Manufacturing. He retired in 1987. He was a member of the Ladora Methodist Church.

He was preceded in death by his parents, and two brothers, Leonard and Merle Fiser.

He is survived by his wife, Lucille, of Ladora; five sons and their spouses, Dean and Ronda Fiser of Carlisle, Dennis and Linda Fiser of Cedar Rapids, Donald and Carol Fiser of Quimby, Daryl and Bette Fiser of Victor, and Delbert and Ruth Fiser of Marengo; one sister, Phyllis Hansen of Victor; 11 grandchildren; five step-grandchildren; and three great-grandchildren.

Smith Funeral Home, Victor, was in charge of arrangements.

B
3
January 1, 1997