Rites held for Miss Flanagan

Beulah Lenore Flanagan, 84, of the Mayflower Home died Wednesday, April 11, at the Beebe Health Care Center.

Funeral services were held at 11 a.m. Saturday at Denison Chapel of the Mayflower Home, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, pastor of the Grinnell United Church of Christ — Congregational, officiating.

Music was provided by Alice Renaud, pianist, and Marvin Kelly, vocalist. Graveside services were held at 2:30 p.m. Saturday at the Pleasantville cemetery.

Memorials in Miss Flanagan's name may be made to the Mayflower Home and left at the Smith Funeral Home.

The daughter of Jonah E. and Hattie Cole Flanagan, she was born Sept. 26, 1899, at Pleasantville. She attended Pleasantville schools, graduating from Pleasantville High School. She attended Simpson College for two years and later attended the University of Colorado at Boulder. She taught in high schools at Grand River, Greenfield and Pleasantville.

In 1929, she began nurse's training at Iowa Lutheran Hospital School of Nursing in Des Moines. Following private-duty nursing, she accepted a position with Dr. D.S. Burbank at Pleasantville and remained in his employ for 30 years, 15 of which she was head nurse at Pleasantville Community Hospital. She retired on May 1, 1963, and came to the Mayflower Home in November of that year.

She was a member of St. Paul's Methodist Church at Pleasantville, was a past worthy matron of Pleasant Chapter, O.E.S., and was a past grand representative and secretary of the Grand Representatives Club.

There are no immediate survivors. She was preceded in death by her parents; one brother, Carl E. Flanagan; and two half-brothers and one half-sister, Ralph and Wilbur Flanagan and Lois M. Flanagan.
