

H-R June 10, 1999

Gloria M. Fleener

Gloria M. Fleener, 65, of Hemphill, Texas, died May 26 at her home.

Her body has been cremated and inurnment will take place at a private memorial service in August at Hazelwood Cemetery when all members of the family and friends can be present. Memorials may be made to the Hospice Grinnell.

She was born Oct. 30, 1933, in Manchester, the daughter of Marion and Marian Hansel. She was married Dec. 21, 1952, in Newton to Bernard P. Fleener, a native of Grinnell. The family lived for 13 years in Brookfield, Ill., where her husband was a school administrator and she was a homemaker. She later was a school secretary in Champaign, Ill., and Port Arthur, Texas.

She is survived by her husband, Bernard of Hemphill; two daughters Lynn M. Lothman of London, England, and Cari M. Papania of Hemphill; one son, Jon Fleener, Port Arthur, Texas, and five grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents and one brother.

H-R June 3, 1999

Gloria M. Fleener

(Bernie)

Gloria Mae Fleener, 65, of Hemphill, Texas, died Wednesday, May 26, at her home.

A private graveside memorial service was conducted, with burial in Manchester.

She was born Oct. 30, 1933, in Manchester and was the daughter of Marion and Marian Hansel.

She was married to Bernie Fleener of Grinnell Dec. 21, 1952, in Newton. She was a homemaker in Brookfield, Ill. She also worked as a school secretary in Champaign, Ill., and Port Arthur, Texas.

Surviving are her husband; two daughters, Lynn Lothman of London, England, and Cari Papania of Hemphill; one son, Jon of Port Arthur; and five grandchildren.

Memorial contributions may be made to Hospice of the Pines, 254 Ethel St., Jasper, Texas 75951.