

Lyle B. Fleener

Lyle B. Fleener, 79, of the Montezuma Senior Home died Wednesday, June 23, at Grinnell General Hospital.

Funeral services were conducted Friday at the Harden Funeral Home in New Sharon, with the Rev. Tom Vander Well officiating. Organist was May McVay, and vocalist was Cindy Norman.

The body was donated to the University of Iowa College of Medicine.

The son of Clair and Ruby Boget Fleener, he was born Feb. 18, 1914, in Stewartville, Minn. He attended high school in Searsboro and had lived most of his life in the Grinnell, Searsboro and Lynnville areas. He had worked as a milkman, a restaurateur and an industrial machinist for Maytag, Windpower and Parsons. He was a former member of the Grinnell Eagles Lodge.

Surviving are four daughters, Linda Crocker of Connecticut, Ricki Lanser of Pella, Rita Carlson of Lynnville and Shelly Westercamp of Marengo; 10 grandchildren; five great-grandchildren; one brother, Earl of Grundy Center; and four sisters, Grace Nettleton of Greene and Gail Wildman, Audrey Dudolski and Louise Taylor, all of Reinbeck.

He was preceded in death by his parents; his stepmother, Ruby Fleener; one son, Larry; one granddaughter, Darci Westercamp; and one brother, Craig. M-R

June 28, 1993