Rites Today For Malcom Resident, Mrs. Marie Fogel

Marie Fogel, 74, long time resident of the Malcom community, died Saturday morning at a local rest home following an extended illness.

Funeral services were held this afternoon (Monday) at the Trinity Lutheran church with the Rev. Fred Peters, pastor, officiating. Prayer services were held at the James-Schalinske Funeral Home.

Vocal music was provided by Mrs. Wayne Dayton, accompanied by Mrs. Kathleen Heffner at the organ. In charge of flowers were Mr. and Mrs. Richard Wichman and Mr. and Mrs. Walter Plum. Pallbearers were Floyd Puls, John Puls, Raymond Puls, Ward Puls, Robert Puls, and Kenneth Gross.

Interment was in Trinity Lutheran cemetery.

The daughter of Louis and Minnie Schultz Puls, she was born Dec. 15th, 1888, at Malcom and attended the schools of that community. She was united in marriage with Willie N. Fogel on Apr. 18th, 1911, at the home of her parents. Following their marriage they farmed in the Madison township area until the death of her husband in 1918.

She then returned to Malcom and made a home for her parents. She lived in Wellman for 14 years and then for seven years made her home with her sister, Mrs. Evelyn Gross. For the past four years she had been a patient in a local rest home.

Mrs. Fogel was a member of Trinity Lutheran church.

She is survived by her brothers, Elmer and Fred Puls, both of Grinnell; her sisters, Mrs. Evelyn Gross and Mrs. Josie Mithelman, both of Grinnell; and her nieces and nephews.

Preceding her in death were her parents; four brothers, John, Lou, Charles, and Ted; and a sister, Ida Ferguson.
