
Will J. Forby⁹⁻¹⁷⁻¹⁹³² Dies On Sunday

Will J. Forby passed away at his home in Deep River at 2 a. m., Sunday morning. Mr. Forby had been ill but was improving and on Saturday was down town. He had intended to attend the funeral of his brother, Frank, held at Fremont Sunday.

Mr. Forby often stated that he had watched Deep River grow to the fine town it is now. He was very proud of the town and was always present to give everyone a glad hand at the annual Deep River celebration. He was a life-long Republican.

Funeral services were held on Thursday afternoon from the Christian church at Deep River at 2 o'clock, with the Rev. R. L. Morrow, pastor of the church, in charge.—Montezuma Republican.
