Mrs. Forman rites Tuesday

(see W.)

Martha L. Forman, 96, of the Mayflower Home died Friday evening, May 19, at the Mayflower Home Health Care Center.

Funeral services will be held at 11 a.m. Tuesday in Denison Chapel of the Mayflower Home, with the Rev. Philip J. Ramstad, pastor of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiating. Pianist will be Joyce Wubbels.

Graveside services will be at 3 p.m. Tuesday at the Ames Municipal Cemetery with the Rev. Henry Campbell, pastor of the United Church of Christ-Congregational of Ames, officiating.

Friends may call at the Smith Funeral Home here from noon to 9 p.m. Monday and from 9 a.m. to 1 p.m. Tuesday.

The daughter of Andrew and Lydia Vale Leffler, she was born May 20, 1887, near Stockport. She attended rural Van Buren County schools and later attended Iowa State University for three years.

She was married to Lee W. Forman on June 15, 1910, and the couple lived in Ames where Mr. Forman was a member of the ISU Agronomy Department staff. Following her husband's death in 1939, Mrs. Forman was employed as a housemother at an Iowa State fraternity house for 16 years. She moved to Pearson Hall at the Mayflower Home in 1959.

She was a member of the United Church of Christ-Congregational in Grinnell, Chapter J.B. of the P.E.O., the Poweshiek County Chapter of the D.A.R., and the Tuesday Club in Ames.

Survivors include her children, Mary Gail Mack of Baltimore, Md., and Wallace R. Forman of St. Paul, Minn.; eight grandchildren; and 11 great-grandchildren. She was preceded in death by her parents; her husband; one son, Loren V. Forman; four brothers and three sisters.
