OBITUARY.

1-2 Mrs. Mary Lee Fowler.

Mrs. Mary Lee Fowler, wife of Harry Fowler, died at Brooklyn, Ia., on Monday evening, after a brief illness from pneumonia of less than one week.

Mrs. Fowler was born in Grinnell on February 3, 1884, and had just entered on her 25th year of life, when the Death Messenger came with his never-to-be-refused call.

Except for a short period during which her home had been in Brooklyn, Mrs. Fowler had spent all her few short years in Grinnell where her quiet, modest life won for her a large circle of friends, who mourn her all too early death.

On July 29, 1903, she married Harry Towler of this city, and to this union we children were born, both of whom the left with the father to share the irreparable loss of a good wife and mother.

The funeral services were held at the home of her parents, John and Margaret Lee, who live at 1623 Third avenue, and interment took place at Hazelwood cemetery February 20th, 1908.

The last audible words which the dying young woman used were: "Jesus lover of my soul,

Let me to Thy bosom fly."

The sympathy of the community is given the sorrowing ones who are called to bear their great affliction.

Card of Thanks.

We wish to express our sincere appreciation and thanks for all the kindness shown us both by neighbors and friends in this our unspeakably sad bereavement.
