

Wednesday Services Held For William Fowler Of Brooklyn

Funeral services were held Wednesday afternoon for William A. Fowler of Brooklyn who died Monday in an Iowa City hospital where he had undergone emergency surgery.

Rev. G. H. Hulsebus, pastor of the United Presbyterian church conducted the services which were held in a Brooklyn funeral home. Mrs. Ed Bartachek was the organist. Burial was in the IOOF cemetery in Brooklyn with Kenneth Gross, Louis Wauters, Robert Price, Denver Miles, Phillip Fowler and C. C. Ecklund serving as pallbearers.

The son of Clinton W. Fowler Sr. and Mary A. Armstrong Fowler, William Armstrong Fowler was born in Madison township of Poweshiek county on August 12, 1894. Survivors include three brothers: Clinton W. Fowler Jr., and Frederick W. Fowler of Brooklyn and Harry D. Fowler of Rawlins, Wyo.

L
g
C