

6-27 OBITUARY. 1919

Mrs. Lars Froiland.

Olava Bergete Erlandsdal was born near Stavanger, Norway, Oct. 5, 1887, where she resided until May 26, 1910, when on this date she left home, friends and relatives and started on that long journey to the United States of America, arriving in Grinnell, Iowa, June 10, 1910.

On the 4th day of July, 1914, she was united in marriage to Mr. Lars Froiland at the home of Mr. Froiland's cousin, Ole Thorson, of Marshalltown, Iowa.

Since that time Mr. and Mrs. Froiland have lived in Grinnell, Mr. Froiland being employed at the Watland Lumber Yards, which position he has filled for the past five years.

Shortly after marriage the young husband and wife purchased the property on the corner of 4th Ave. and Center street, where they began bulding a home which promised to be one of our many real happy American homes. Mrs. Froiland often voicing her satisfaction and happiness in her new home life.

Until in May, 1913, Mrs. Froiland enjoyed the best of health, when at this time she was taken with a very severe attack of rheumatism, being confined at the City Hospital for a while and after a few months she seemed to have entirely rocovered, but was left so doctors said, with a weakened heart, but seemed to suffer no ill-effects from this until last fall and winter when she did not seem to be in her usual health although at this time nothing serious was anticipated.

Funeral was held today from the Lutheran church and the remains
