

Grace Fuller

Grace Hadley Fuller, 91, of Marysville, Calif., formerly of Grinnell, died of a heart ailment Monday, Nov. 12, at her home.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1 p.m. Saturday at the Smith Funeral Home, with the Rev. Kenneth Wallace, pastor of the Newburg-Chester parish of the United Church of Christ-Congregational, officiating. Organist will be Alice Renaud, and burial will be in Hazelwood Cemetery.

Friends may call at the funeral home between 6 and 9 p.m. Friday.

The daughter of Elam and Minnie Boyd Hadley, she was born in Gilman March 17, 1899. She was a graduate of Grinnell High School and the University of California at Berkeley.

She was married to Sheldon Fuller, Oct. 19, 1921, in Grinnell. The couple moved to Washington, D.C., where Mrs. Fuller was head of the bibliography department of the Library of Congress from 1930 to 1961.

Upon her retirement, she and her husband moved to Marysville, Calif., and farmed for a number of years. While there, she helped to reorganize the Yuba College Library.

She was a member of St. John's Episcopal Church in Marysville, the PEO, Fortnightly, Delta Kappa Gamma Society International, and the Seminar Group.

Surviving are two brothers, Donald B. Hadley of Washington, D.C., and Harold of Marysville, and one sister, Dorothy Zeh of Winston-Salem, N.C. She was preceded in death by her husband; one daughter, Elizabeth; three brothers and one sister.
