Retired Farmer, Wes Gabriel, Dies at 79

Wesley A., son of Catherine and James Gabriel, was born near Millersburg, Iowa, on November 18, 1887, and passed away in Deep River, Iowa, on June 20, 1967, at seventy-nine years of age.

He attended rural school and the Community and the Presbyterian Church in Deep River.

On April 17, 1912, he was united in marriage with Jennie McLain. Although they had no children of their own, they shared their home with their neices and nephews.

They made their home on the same farm for forty-eight years. In 1960 they retired and moved to his present home in Deep River. After the death of his companion in 1961, he maintained his home as long as his health permitted.

He is survived by a sister-in-law, several nieces and nephews, other relatives and many friends.

Services were held June 23, 1967 at 2 p.m. in the Deep River Presbyterian Church with the Rev. Mr. Wayne Fisher officiating. Music was provided by Mrs. George Dale. Casket-bearers were Lloyd Rank, Elmer Erteld, Ivan Icenbice, Dean Humphrey, Marvin Humphrey and Leland Winegarden.

Interment was in Golden Rod Cemetery at Deep River, under the direction of Steffy Funeral Home of Montezuma.
