

OBITUARY.

6-9-1911

Hazel C. Garrigan.

Hazel C., daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Michael J. Garrigan, was born in Grinnell, Iowa, October 17th, 1895.

Early last fall she was stricken with pleuro-pneumonia from which she never fully recovered, and tho at times it was hoped that she was really convalescent, this with other complications was the cause of her decease June 6th, 1911, she being fifteen years, seven months and nine days.

Hazel was well-known and loved by a large circle of friends. Her sunny disposition and never-failing good nature gained and held the loving appreciation of those with whom she came into contact.

She was a consistent member and regular attendant of the Methodist Episcopal church and the Junior Missionary Society of that church and had given promise of a helpful youth and womanhood. Her young associates in these societies were represented at the funeral service, which was held at the home, 518 Park St., and interment was in Hazelwood cemetery, June 8th, 1911.

The Woodmen, the Royal Neighbors, the Modern Brotherhood of America and the fire department were present in a body as were a number of the men from the Spaulding shops.
