

H-R FEBRUARY 22,
Dora Geiger

rites today

Dora A. Geiger, 93, of Ames died Thursday, Feb. 18, at Riverside Manor. She was a former resident of Grinnell.

Funeral services will be conducted at 1:30 p.m. today at Nichols Chapel of the Collegiate United Methodist Church in Ames, with the Rev. Lester L. Moore officiating. Graveside services are set for 4 p.m. at Hazelwood Cemetery.

She was born Oct. 10, 1888, at Reading, Ohio, moving to Iowa at the age of 6. She was the daughter of Frederick and Henrietta Ahrens.

On Dec. 25, 1908, she was married to William A. Geiger of Grinnell, who served as county extension director. Mr. Geiger preceded her in death, along with 10 brothers and sisters and one infant son, William Lloyd Geiger.

Survivors include two sons, Harlan E. Geiger of Ames and Earl Geiger of Wadena, Minn.; three daughters, Dorothy Brown of Des Moines, Naomi Jensen of Ft. Meyers, Fla., and Wilma Walsh of Vienna, Va.; 16 grandchildren; and 24 great-grandchildren.