

H - R

Monday, Sept. 12, 1977—page 2

Rites held for Mr. Glowacki

Stephen S. Glowacki, a former resident of Grinnell, died Saturday, Sept. 3, at University Hospitals in Iowa City, following a lengthy illness.

He was 32.

Funeral services for Mr. Glowacki were held at 1 p.m. Monday, Sept. 5, at the Immaculate Conception Catholic Church in Masonville. Burial was at St. Mary's Cemetery there. A scriptural rosary was recited Sunday evening at the Fawcett Funeral Chapel in Lamont.

The son of Dominic and Angeline Kujak Glowacki, he was born Nov. 29, 1944, at Arcadia, Wis. He was graduated from Clinton High School, Clinton, after which he was employed by the Hy-Vee Food Store chain. He worked in Grinnell for six years.

Mr. Glowacki is survived by his wife, Barbara, of Grinnell; a daughter, Michelle; his parents; two brothers, Raymond of Winona, Minn., and Ralph of Clinton and two sisters, Mrs. Don (Jane) Howard of Clinton and Mrs. James (Sue) Holmes of Camanche.