

Elver Goodlow Rites Held Tuesday

Funeral services for Elver J. Goodlow were conducted by the Rev. Lester Hall Tuesday morning, October 6, at the Steffy Funeral Home. Miss Alice Underwood was the organist at the services.

Burial was in Golden Rod Cemetery, Deep River, with Clifford Hicks, Howard Hicks, Daryl Goodlow, Harold Byers, Raymond Byers and Morris Fitzsimmons serving as casket bearers.

Mr. Goodlow, 79, passed away Sunday, October 4, in the Grinnell General Hospital.

The son of Thomas and Ellen Goodlow, he was born in Scott Township, Poweshiek

County, on Nov. 7, 1890.

In his youth he attended rural school and the Fairview Church.

On March 31, 1928, he was united in marriage with Nina Byers Palmer. They lived on the Goodlow homestead where he farmed. He was like a father to his wife's two children and in 1938 they provided a home for Howard White.

He was a member of the Methodist Church and the Farm Bureau.

Since the death of his wife in 1960 he has maintained his home on the farm.

He is survived by Mrs. Mildred Corey, Norval Palmer, Howard White; four grandchildren and several great-grandchildren; one sister, Mrs. Maggie Johnston; and a sister-in-law, Mrs. Alice Goodlow.
