

Fannie Goodlow Rites Held Saturday

1966
Apr 14 Montezuma Rites

Last rites for Miss Fannie Goodlow were conducted by the Rev. Howard Hayes Saturday afternoon at the Steffy Funeral Home. Vocal music was provided by Mr. and Mrs. Keith Stahl accompanied by Miss Alice Underwood, organist.

Interment was in the Masonic-IOOF Cemetery in Montezuma. The casketbearers were: Howard Hicks, Clifford Hicks, Howard White, Leroy Johnston, Darrell Goodlow and Morris Fitzsimmons.

Fannie Goodlow, eldest daughter of Thomas and Ellen Goodlow, was born in Scott Township on June 7, 1878, and passed away at her home in Montezuma on April 6. She was 87.

She attended Scott No. 7 rural school, Fairview Sunday School and Church and later became a member of the Methodist Church. Her entire life was devoted to helping her parents and others who were in need of assistance.

Aunt Fannie, as she was known, was especially happy when relatives and friends were at her table where she could extend her gracious hospitality.

She moved with her family to Montezuma in 1920 and since that time has made her home here.

She is survived by one sister, Mrs. Maggie Johnston; and one brother, Elver Goodlow.

She was preceded in death by her parents, four brothers and five sisters.
