

Charles Goodrich Rites Here Sunday

Services were conducted Sunday at 2 p.m. at First United Presbyterian church for Charles H. Goodrich, 77, who died Thursday afternoon at Marengo Memorial hospital following a two-day illness. The Rev. G.H. Hulsebus, pastor, was in charge. Mrs. Ed Bartacnek was organist and Mrs. George Montgomery of Victor was soloist.

Burial was in Ivy Hill cemetery at Malcom with the following serving as pallbearers: Harold Hiner, Gene Bartachek and Roger Hall of Brooklyn, Loren Rhodes of Collins and Clarence Cogley and Robert Vogt of Grinnell. Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Calderwood and Mr. and Mrs. Jesse Bunnell were in charge of flowers.

Charles Henry Goodrich, son of Lucias and Ella Jane Cratty Goodrich, was born Oct. 30, 1884, at Grinnell, Iowa. His father was killed when he was nine years old, and he made his home with his uncle, John Eichhorn, and attended Grinnell schools.

March 18, 1909, he married Harriet Olevia Garretson of Iowa City. Seven children were born to the couple.

Mr. Goodrich spent most of his life farming in Poweshiek county, with the exception of three years when he lived in Sacramento, Calif., and one year when he managed a locker plant in Montezuma.

He was a member of the Odd Fellows lodge in Malcom and the Brooklyn Knights of Pythias lodge. He was a charter member of the Farm Bureau in this county and had worked on ASC committees for a number of years.

Preceding him in death were his parents, his wife, and an infant son, Carroll Eugene.

Surviving are six children: Virgil, Marion and Mrs. Kenneth (Xavie) Richman of Brooklyn; Mrs. Earl (Olevia) Lidtka of Grinnell; Lotus and Charles R. of Malcom. Also Mrs. Etharage (Viola) Heath of Brighton, Colo., a daughter by a previous marriage; a sister, Mrs. Mabel Beskeen of Sacramento, Calif.; 30 grandchildren and 29 great grandchildren.
