The daughter of Earl and Ethel Walford Dunton, she was born Nov. 2, 1917, at Brooklyn. Following the death of her father, she was adopted by her aunt and uncle, Alice and Elza Goodlow of Deep River. She attended Guernsey schools, graduating from Guernsey High School in 1935. She attended Iowa State Teachers College at Cedar Falls. Following her education, she taught in Poweshiek County rural schools for eight years.

On March 11, 1942, she was married to Lyle J. Goodwin in Malcom, where they made their home all of their married lives. Mrs. Goodwin was active in the Goodwin Real Estate, Insurance and Tax Service until her retirement in 1978. She was a member of the Malcom United Methodist Church and was active in the U.M.W. of the church. She was also a member of the Rebekah Lodge of Malcom and was on the Malcom Centennial Committee.

Survivors include her husband Lyle; her daughters, Linda Marie Albers of Russellville, Ark., and Louise Ann Simpson of Toledo; four grandchildren; her mother by adoption, Alice Goodlow of Brooklyn; and a brother, Darrell Goodlow of Deep River. She was preceded in death by her parents, her adoptive father, one grandson, two brothers and one sister.
